

INFORMATION PACKAGE
FOR INTERNATIONALLY EDUCATED TEACHERS

Information for Internationally Educated Teachers

For more information on how to obtain an Ontario College of Teachers Letter of Evaluation/Instruction or Interim Certificate of Qualification, visit <http://www.oct.ca/iet/>.

The following options are available for Internationally Educated Teachers.

Courses in a Faculty of Education

A full course is 6 credits and generally runs September to April. A half course is 3 credits and runs either September to December or January to April. For undergraduate sessional dates, go to: <http://www.registrar.yorku.ca/enrol/dates/>.

Education Practicum

Your 20 or 40 day practicum placement must be in the Division for which the College of Teachers has granted/is prepared to grant you interim certification.

In order to qualify for the practicum program at York University, you must agree to attend five practicum seminar classes for each semester, which are part of the practicum course PRAC 2100 section I. Attendance is mandatory. The practicum may take place in the following terms: Fall (September to December) or Winter (January to April). A maximum of 10 students are accepted for each term.

A 20-day practicum is considered as a 3-credit course (ED/PRAC 2100 3.00). A 40-day practicum would be considered two 20-day practicums; both Fall and Winter. In order to be enrolled in the practicum course, and to receive a transcript, your placement arrangements must be made by September 16 for the Fall and January 6 for the Winter term.

Please submit the following documents to the BEd Student Services:

1. Copy of the completed Internationally Educated Teachers Application Form (please see below).
2. Copy of the letter from the Ontario College of Teachers.
3. Proof of having met the Ontario College of Teachers' language proficiency. For test results to be considered valid, the test must have been completed no more than two years prior to your application.
4. Course Transaction Form (please see below).
5. A $30 money order or certified cheque from your bank, payable to York University, which is the processing fee for the application.
6. Proof of Immigration Status or Permanent Residency.
7. A copy of your Approved Police Record Check and Accident Insurance (In order to participate in a practicum placement at a school the university and the school you will be in need to see proof of accident insurance. Please provide proof either by scanning your benefits plan policy information or letter from an employer)

After the end of each term (January, April, or August), it will be possible for you to request a transcript online from the Registrar's office to be sent to the Ontario College of Teachers. Please visit:

<http://www.registrar.yorku.ca/transcripts/> for more information.

It is very important that your student records, including your mailing address, be kept up-to-date at all times. To change your address and to verify your official name to be indicated on your transcripts, please visit <http://www.registrar.yorku.ca>.

Important Note: If you are enrolling in an Undergraduate course offered by another faculty at York University, do not submit a Course Transaction Form to the Faculty of Education. You will need to use the online Registration & Enrolment Module.

Passport York: In order to use the University's online services (e.g. change course enrolments, view grades, check your own student financial statements, etc...) you will need to set up an online Passport York account. Please visit <http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/currentstudents/ppystudents.html> to create a username and password. Once you have created a Passport York login, then you can enrol in York University courses where open spaces are available.

Course Offerings: Please note that certain courses have spaces available only to students enrolled in that faculty (i.e. Schulich School of Business, Osgoode Hall Law School, Education, Fine Arts, etc...). In order to research the courses offered at York University, visit the Web site for current students <http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>, click on the link "Course Timetables." Search by "Subject" and highlight the course code (e.g. EDUC – Education) and click the "Search for Courses" button at the bottom of the webpage. You can click on the link for Subject and then Session: Fall/Winter 2014-15, and Subject: Education to view the list of courses that may be available and information on the term (i.e. F for Fall, W for Winter, and Y for Full Year) as well as the day (i.e. M for Monday, T for Tuesday, W for Wednesday, R for Thursday, and F for Friday) and times when different sections of the course are offered. To enroll online, return to the Web site for current students <http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm> and click on the icon "Enrol Online" or click on the link "Add/Drop a course."

Practicum Placement:

The Faculty of Education will arrange for practicum supervision, evaluation, and documentation. A Practicum Supervisor will be appointed to work with you in your practicum placement. The supervisor will contact you at the beginning of your placement and visit at least once during your practicum to consult with your Host Teacher, discuss your progress with you, and indicate whether or not you are demonstrating the necessary elements and characteristics of teaching to be considered successful in the practicum. Towards the end of your practicum, the Practicum Supervisor will formally observe your ability to plan, implement, and support students in engaging with the curriculum. A Summative Practicum Report will be submitted to you and the Faculty of Education. Based on your combined performance in the practicum seminar and at your practicum placement, you will be assigned a Pass/ Fail grade, which will appear on your York University transcript.

In order to qualify for the practicum program at York University, you must agree to attend five practicum seminar classes tied to the practicum course PRAC 2100. Attendance at these seminar classes is mandatory. A maximum of 10 students are accepted for each term. The dates and time for the fall and winter term Practicum Placement and seminar classes will be available in August 2015.
