The completion of a Bachelor of Education (BEd) degree provides the qualifications to teach in one teaching panel (Primary-Junior, Junior-Intermediate or Intermediate-Senior) in schools, including certification with the Ontario College of Teachers (OCT). The program is offered in Direct-Entry, Concurrent and Consecutive delivery models.

The Bachelor of Education (BEd) Technological Education is also offered to those who would like to become teachers of Technological Education at the Intermediate-Senior (grades 9-12) level.

Step 4: At the top of the page, click on the "Degree Requirements" button:

Concurrent Degree Requirements ✓

Students who are enrolled concurrently in two degrees at York University must ensure that they have met the requirements in their Bachelor's degree in order to fulfill the requirements for teaching subjects in the Bachelor of Education.

Primary-Junior Requirements - Concurrent

Since the Primary-Junior teacher must be a generalist, it is strongly recommended that students in the Primary-Junior program take as part of their coregistered program some of the following courses in their York program:

Step 7: Scroll down the page in order to review the requirements for your teaching panel.
Note that students in Junior-Intermediate and Intermediate-Senior should also click on the appropriate teaching subject in order to see any specific requirements.

Academic courses for Intermediate-Senior teaching subjects should be taken according to the following patterns:

Business Studies (Intermediate/Senior Only) >

Accounting >

Biology (Intermediate/Senior only) >

Business - General >

Entrepreneurship >

Step 8: Students who would like additional support or clarification can speak with an advisor in the Faculty of Education. Email: osp@edu.yorku.ca.
